

"Rescue" combines heavy-hitting alt-rock sounds with straightforward, inspired lyrics about Christian living. Though the CD is not yet available at Christian retail brick-and-mortar stores, it's definitely worth digging for. This 5 piece band, comprised of front man Zach Dietz, guitarist Shawn Anglin, bassist Chris Brown, turn-table/midi programmer Michael Murry and drummer Kuhrt Cowan, has been fortifying its unique sound since the band formed nearly five years ago. A steady diet of touring, from churches and festivals to camps and bowling alleys, has solidified these five into one of the best independent outfits on the present rock scene. Songs from "Rescue" run the gamut from acoustic guitar driven gems with tight harmonies, such as "Maybe" to the harder-edged and to radio-ready title track "Rescue." Maybe has been featured in a christian horror flim called 'Evil Behind You' as well as won "Best Song" at a state wide battle of the bands. Ranking 4th out of 250 different independent bands across the nation ARLT is proving they are one of the best indepent acts out there today.

To date the band has played all over Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, and Tennessee. They have been paired with youth speaker Brad Duncan and comedian Bob Smiley. They have shared the stage with national acts such as; Skillet, Day of Fire, Building 429, Fireflight, Eleventy Seven, Nevertheless, Kutless, Family Force Five, Barlow Girl, Delirious?, Jeremy Camp, Flatfoot 56, Classic Crime, Red, Scary Kids Scaring Kids, Detour 180, By the Tree, Superchick, Chris Tomlin, Daily Planet, Jump 5 and Hyperstatic Union.

ARLT's music is encompassed by a fresh alternative rock sound that promotes hope, change, and love in a world that can feel stagnant. Connecting with their audience takes more than a powerful stage performance, but rather is dependant on meeting each person face-to-face before and after each show.
