BIOGRAPHY :

In a cluttered contemporary Christian scene packed with a plethora of worship music clones, the term authenticity may be thrown around a lot, though in reality, is rarely executed to its fullest degree. However, for the members of Breathe Deep, pouring out an authentic artistic outpouring is only half the battle, instead filling up the remainder of the equation with an amazingly genuine approach to vertical songwriting that doesn't just focus on the sunshine drenched satisfactions of life, but also its disruptive chaos and constant stream of trials. Both are bold paths indeed, but ones founder Mike King (with a troupe of instrumental backers) unashamedly walks throughout a self-titled CD, laying down all burdens before the cross while simultaneously offering unconditional glory to God. breathedeep has opened for bands such as the Newsboys, Kutless and the David Crowder Band. The summer of 2006 alone pushed breathedeep to lead over 50,000 people in worship, and 2007 saw similar success. This album is being made available to the retail public for the first time as a precursor to their soon-to-be-released sophomore effort due out later this year.
