Da Clay presents the heart of a worshipper through passionate lyrics that demand the attention of anyone within earshot. He brings energy and fire while speaking with the boldness of a man on a mission to take the Gospel out to the masses. On his highly anticipated CD, “Genesis: My Life After His Death”, he is sure to gain the respect of the Gospel Rap community at large. Da Clay explodes on the scene as he pours out his heart on tracks like “Ain’t Runnin No Mo”, which is a cry to God about fulfilling his destiny in life. On “War of the Worlds (Remix)”, a follow-up to the original “War of the Worlds” single which has been circulating the underground gospel rap scene for a year now, the melodic, soul-stirring sound of Tiffane’ complements the flow of Da Clay perfectly. On “Focus” (which is a bass banger for the speakers as well as food for thought), Da Clay switches to teaching mode as he encourages the believers to stay focused on their relationship with God, and for unbelievers to move toward a relationship with the Most High. Committed to staying unashamed of the God he serves, Da Clay makes his point crystal clear on the track “Saved and Serious” which features Apaulsoul. With live drums and high-intensity, the two artists deliver a potent message about being serious toward their relationship with Christ. On the track “Who You Represent” (featuring Mr. Q. and Puntin) even the most critical listener will be compelled to recite the lyrics. And on “Dats the Gospel” (featuring fellow Double Edge Sword Records label-mate UnknownN) Da Clay and his crew continue to let people know exactly what they are preaching about.

With production from Msimp of Kingdom Music Productions, UnknownN, and Base Jase of Illnoise Music (to name a few), there’s a beautifully vast array of styles - from worship to smooth classical hip hop to reggae, Da Clay brings it on every song! If you’re looking for a versatile album full of poignant lyrics, passion and enthusiasm, look no further than “Genesis: My Life After His Death”.
