

Darnell Davis & The Remnant

anointed ministry and musical excellence!

ABOUT THE GROUP

Darnell Davis & The Remnant is a community based gospel ensemble with a mission to draw the masses to Christ through gospel, worship and praise songs. The Remnant's ministry style extends across traditional, contemporary and urban landscapes, allowing the group to reach many with the powerful message of the gospel. While The Remnant was established in 2004, the group is made up of seasoned professionals and veterans in the gospel industry. Founder and director, F. Darnell Davis is and has been the key writer for many of the Twin Cities best known gospel groups, including Excelsior, James Gear & Company, and the Sounds Of Blackness. Darnell is also credited with songs written for the Minneapolis Gospel Sound, Tarrlyn Ramsey and Ricky Dillard. The Remnant's founder and visionary, F. Darnell Davis, better know as "Baby D", was considered to be one of best kept secrets in gospel music. But in 2002 everything changed with the release of Excelsior's single "It's my Time". Immediately Darnell was noted as the driving force, key writer, and producer behind Verity Recording Artist Excelsior's 2002 Stellar Award and Excelsior's 2003 Stellar and Grammy nominations. While gospel music is Darnell's main focus, he has been summoned by gospel and R&B notables to write songs for upcoming projects. An undeniably gifted musician, F. Darnell Davis has not only shared his written words but a large variety of arrangements for his music. With The Remnant's stellar vocal ability and Darnell's dynamic musical abilities, this group is destined to be a success on the gospel scene uplifting and encouraging people in all ways that are pleasing to Christ.
