

ARTIST:SONGS FROM SUNDAY MORNING

Holy Mountain Music announces its inaugural release of "Songs from Sunday Morning". This recording has already been called a breath of fresh air for Christian music, not only for the clever arrangements by arranger/producer Bobby Bush, but for the joy and vitality of the music on this largely instrumental album of contemporary versions of well-loved hymns and spiritual songs.

This recording features performances and solo work by a stellar group of world-class musicians including Grammy Award-winning trumpeter Fletch Wiley, saxophonist Jaared, Dove Award-winning vocalist Marty McCall of the vocal trio First Call and vocalist/songwriter Carmen Calhoun.

"Songs from Sunday Morning" offers a level of musical maturity and production quality not generally found in many of today's recordings. There's a strong connection of music, emotion and message within the string arrangements by Ben Roundtree and the dynamic horn arrangements and heartfelt playing of multi-woodwind player Jim Bjork. Blessings and inspiration abound in the richness created by harpist Frank Voltz, gospel and jazz keyboardist Jon Waller, jazz guitarist Rick Bowlby and HMM's own bassist/keyboardist Bobby Bush. Each track will draw the listener in with unique grooves and styles, bathing them in the spirit of God.

The first of four singles to be released is "Tis So Sweet," a funky, smooth jazz platform single. Based on the hymn, "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus," the musical message is one of hope and faith, and will lift and encourage even the most downcast spirit. This cut features Rick Bowlby's captivating guitar work, the dynamic rhythm section of drummer Ken McNair and bassist Bobby Bush, the spell-binding keyboard work of Jon Waller and the intricate textures created by percussionist Leo Alvarez.

"Songs from Sunday Morning" is a powerful musical journey, recalling and reviving timeless songs of the Christian faith and the heart of God for his people. This release provokes the listener to find joy and restoration in a renewed relationship with the living Lord Jesus.
