

Trishelle's heart of worship began at an early age. Born in the spring on May 31st Charron Trishelle Ruiz began singing as a toddler. She is truly a reflection of training up a child in the way they should go. Her sound however, is a departure from the southern gospel she was raised singing and listening to. Trishelle is formerly a member of the female vocal trio UpSyde. They've recorded three CD projects together. As a member of UpSyde Trishelle has had the opportunity to tour the U.S and Europe. Trishelle wrote, arranged and produced for all three projects. For the past decade Trishelle has been writing and producing songs for other artist. Gleaning from some of her greatest influences of worship leaders such as Pastor Clint Brown & Fred Hammond, Trishelle began recording what is now her debut solo release "Praise on Purpose" early 2007. Trishelle has been leading worship for 20 years. She follows no trends. Her music has a way of engaging the hearts of individuals to enter into Gods presence with complete abandonment of self. Praise on Purpose is written from the heart of a worshipper to the hearts of Gods worshippers.
